MOSQUITOES AND BIG FLIES FIGHT. -A dispatch from Camden, Del., says during the past few days the mosqui toes have been so thick on the farms that work in many fields has been suspended. A farmer in town from along the bay shore says that a plague of green flies is adding to the miseries caused by the morquitoes. He told a story of a queer combat between a swarm of flies and mosquitoes over the possession of a horse. The animal was grazing in a meadow when a huge crowd of mosquitoes surrounded it. The horse became frantic and rushed around the field, when a swarm of the big flies attacked it.

Then the cloud of mosquitoes and fles became mixed, and the air was filled with a strange noise, but every moment some mosquitoes or flies were seen to drop to the earth. The horse was covered with blood, the mosquitoes abandoned their prey to the flies The farmer said the owner would have to kill the horse to end its misery.
